Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Exorcism or the casting out of devil spirits has become a worldwide curiosity. Many people blatantly deny the reality of devils and accredit unexplained mischief to psychological phenomena. Are there dangers in the current interest in devils, possession, and exorcism? Certainly there are dangers, warned the widely respected theologian Dr. Hans K. LaRondelle, associate professor of systematic theology at Andrews University. Dangers that we can have an unhealthy interest in these powers and become more devil-oriented than Christ-oriented. The devil has an easy entrance in those who have let down the barriers of their souls. The idea of possessive, evil, supernatural beings is distasteful, but there are those who know that devils are real, walking among us, waiting to live within us. Many fundamental believers interpret the Bible simply and literally. It is with scriptural assurance that they are convinced of the reality of devil spirits. They confront these evil forces with calmness and determination, secure in the power of the Holy Ghost within themselves to protect them and overpower the opposition. In my name shall they cast out devils is the first of the five signs found in Mark 16:17-18. Christians throughout the world believe these signs were given to the true believers by Christ before his Ascension. To them, they are as necessary and as relevant today as they were when the risen Master offered them to his faithful few. Members of such faiths approach devil possession almost casually. It has been an integral part of their religion for generations. Others are just now beginning to discuss the subject, almost as if devil spirits must be officially recognized. One becomes possessed to work Satan...
