Excerpt: . . . 11 to significantly reduce the number of duty statuses while retaining sufficient over-sight and specificity to justify the budget request. While the exact number has not yet been determined, I anticipate a substantial reduction in duty statuses but it is highly unlikely, and probably not desirable that we will get to only two duty statuses as suggested by the Commission - on duty or off duty. The Secretary did not support the Commissions recommendations to remove end strength limits or to eliminate Active Duty for Operational Support. These provi-sions were enacted to enable Congress to monitor manpower management within the Department and they provide the Department with useful metrics to help man-age the force. IV. Developing a Ready, Capable and Available Operational Reserve Developing and maintaining a ready, capable and available operational Reserve can only be accomplished if it is properly resourced. Funding an operational Re-serve was one of two special interest items identified...
