Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Even nice people must have a dark side December 1973, Twenty Years Old, The Wall-Part Six (Wrath) I was going to say that it wasn't funny but that could start a conversation. I simply said, I can do this and gave her no eye contact. Regan ran from the room crying again. I realized that Regan had never seen me this focused and direct before. It probably scared her that she had broken something and it couldn't be fixed. Tamara stood there watching this scene, now even more confused. She repeated to me as she squinted and moved her head forward, What happened? You'll have to ask your sister. I have to leave. I could feel Tamara's eyes on my back as I walked to the door. I could hear Regan crying loudly as I closed the door behind me. I knew I would never be seeing that apartment again. I turned to my left and pushed the exit door open so I could go down the stairs. I certainly was not going...
