

Alternative Revolution Magazine: Gt6 Photography Special Edition

By Michael Enoches

Michael Enoches, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Our magazine features photographers, models, artist, music, movies and much more. In this special edition we feature John GT6 Johnson. His studio is in downtown Columbus, Ohio. The building was built in 1910 and is an open industrial space filled with artists. It houses, sculptors, painters, web app developers, an architect and of course GT6 Photography. Our building hosts a farmers market two Saturdays a month so it seems I'm always bumping into familiar faces and I love that about it. The studio itself is a pretty cozy space but the environment really lets the creativity flow. When I first started shooting I did a lot of pinup and glamor and a few other various styles as well. I think it took me a couple of years to build up enough credibility with models and show people what my true style is all about and what I'm capable of doing. I knew that I had to shoot more of what I felt strongly about. I have always been drawn to the art of Eric Stanton...
