By David Shank, Farmer and Tenant in Low Curgie, Wigtonshire. From the Communications to the Board of Agriculture. The Silver Medal was voted to Mr. Shank for this Improvement. IN the district wherein Mr. Shank resides, vit. the Rhins of Galloway, irrigation is not practised by any other farmer, and little or imperfectly by any proprietor. His attempt, or experiment, commenced in November 1809, in a small field, admirably adapted for such an operation. He had adverted to the peculiar situation of the field for several years: and although the land is well adapted for tillage, yet as grazing is a great object in this country, it occurred to him, that this small field, converted into a water-meadow, would be of essential value to his farm. In Spring 1807, therefore, after the field had been richly prepared by a drill-green crop,...
